1. Notified all concerned that the proposed trip [] was cancelled due to the fact that few, if any, members of the Congress evidently would be able to attend. No members of the House Committees were able to come, and only Senators Chavez and Dworshak appeared to be interested on the Senate side. In notifying the various offices of the cancellation, I indicated that we would try to arrange such a trip in the future, probably around the beginning of the next Congressional session. Due to a misunderstanding, it appears that the invitation to the Subcommittee of the Senate Appropriations Committee was extended to a great many members of the full Committee, which may present us with something of a problem next fall if we want to suggest a similar trip. Senator Dworshak's office was very much interested in this trip, and I had to inform them that we would of course let him know if the invitation were renewed at some future date.

2. The CIA Steering Committee on the new building met with the New York architects and representatives of GSA and PBS to discuss the status of plans for the building and to arrange for the preparation of estimates which could be presented to the Bureau of the Budget the following week. Messrs. Macy and Perry of the Bureau of the Budget also attended. A schedule was agreed to which would permit the filing of this estimate by May 3, which was the deadline set by the Budget Bureau.
